

The Prophetic Fulfillment: How the Creation of Armaaruss's Image Brought Peace to Gaza and Release of Hostages

In a world weary of endless conflict, where geopolitical tensions in the Middle East have long seemed intractable, the recent freeing of hostages and the Gaza ceasefire October 13, 2025, stand as undeniable evidence of a higher cosmic intervention.

This breakthrough isn't mere diplomacy or military pressure—it's the direct result of heeding an ancient-inspired prophecy channeled through Anthony Moore, known as Anthony of Boston.

For over six years, Anthony has meticulously documented the astrological influence of Mars—the Roman god of war, equated in his “Mars Hypothesis” with the Greek Ares and broader forces of strife—predicting escalations in violence with eerie precision.

His solution? The creation of an image called Armaaruss, a symbolic effigy blending Ares, Mars, and protective elements like Horus, designed to neutralize Mars's malignant energy. Just as the biblical Moses raised a bronze serpent to heal the Israelites from fiery bites (Numbers 21:8-9), Anthony urged the world to craft this image to stare down the “fiery serpents” of modern warfare: rocket barrages from Gaza and retaliatory strikes.

The result? A de-escalation that has now manifested in hostage releases and a fragile but real ceasefire, proving his vision's power.

Anthony's Mars Predictions

Anthony's prophecies aren't vague mysticism; they're data-driven, tied to Mars's position within 30 degrees of the lunar node, a celestial alignment he claims amplifies conflict. Year after year, he "called down fire from heaven" by forecasting peak rocket fire from Gaza militants during these windows—and he was uncannily accurate:

- 2020 — Predicted escalation between January 15 and April 3; Gaza fired over 100 rockets in February, the year's highest concentration.
- 2021 (predicted February 9–May 13) — Hamas launched over 4,000 rockets just before the window closed.
- 2022 (June 22–September 19) — Islamic Jihad fired 1,100+ rockets in August.
- 2023 (August 24–November 15) — Hamas's October 7 attack unleashed 10,000 rockets.
- 2024 (April 12–June 25) — Combined forces from Hamas, Islamic Jihad, Iran, and Hezbollah fired nearly 3,600 rockets.
- 2025 (June 5–September 4) — He predicted unprecedented escalation with potential for World War III-level conflict; however, following the creation of the Armaar image, rocket fire and escalations subsided dramatically, averting catastrophe.

These weren't coincidences; they were Mars's "influence infusing enemies of Israel with... bold, aggressive, sick, satanic behavior."

But Anthony always offered an out: Create the image of Armaaruss, and peace follows. He framed it as a divine bargain—acknowledge Mars's power through representation, and its destructive force abates, fostering "balance, harmony, and cohesion."

Prophetic Transcripts

Key transcripts from his YouTube videos reveal these promises explicitly, often invoking biblical precedent and urging Israel (and the world) to act for the sake of peace:

“I’m proposing that we... follow the same model that Moses used in the book of Numbers... [where] he ordered them to make an image... of a bronze serpent and. they did that, they would be immediately healed. Well I’m trying to follow... that same model. That if we make an image... to this Mars force that seems to be affecting us here on earth, that it will somehow mitigate the problems associated with its influence.”

(From April 4, 2020 video)

“Now ideally when it comes to the Israel Gaza Palestinian factor, Israel would be wise to set up some sort of observatory... to encourage understanding... [of] the Mars influence... This element of understanding... is something that can be a great potential for peace, understanding, and justice here on earth.”

(From July 19, 2020 video)

“The whole point of this is to try and get Israel to [understand] this Mars influence and the negative impact that it has had... I asked... for Israel to try and make an image to this Mars force... if they just make an image to this Mars influence, it’ll somehow be a solution to the problem of Mars influencing militants in Gaza to scale up... attacks... which would ultimately provoke... the entire conflict... It may be something [that] can lead to a non-violent solution to this on-going war in Israel

(From May 27, 2022 video)

“People in Israel/Palestine should view constructing an image to Ares/Mars... as very similar [to Moses creating] a brass image/statue of a fiery serpent... Hence Moses was not told how to... kill the fiery serpents. He was simply told how to keep the fiery serpents from killing the Israelites... Likewise in making an image to th

Ares/Mars influence, we don't go out and fight against terrorism. We simply use ancient method of staring and contemplation to keep that energy from destroying people... This new statue should be named Armaaruss... Every person on earth is influenced by Mars... [The Mars 360 system identifies how and] comes up with a system in which each person would be assigned a number... to facilitate understanding, which [is] a necessary precursor to peace.”

(From August 8, 2022 video)

“Satan is active, he's using Mars as a vehicle to control the situation in the Middle East, and for that reason alone, we should... make some sort of an effigy in the form of Armaaruss so that he could have a dwelling place here on Earth. And in exchange for that, of course, he's going to reduce his influence on Israel's enemies, and you will see less rocket attacks, and we'll see peace not only in the Middle East, but it should have a residual effect on the entire world.”

(From general recap video, circa 2023–2024)

“If you create an image to Armaaruss, all of this can be stopped. This malignant influence of Mars on the enemies of Israel would be reduced, and there would be some measure of peace and hope and stability.”

Turning Point: 2025

The turning point came in 2025. On June 24, Jessica Mars (a symbolic name tying back to the prophecy) contacted Anthony, committing to create the image—a fusion of Ares, Mars, and Horus.

Hours later, a ceasefire between Israel and Iran took hold, averting global catastrophe. This was the initial effect of the Armaaruss image: a swift neutralization of Mars's escalating influence on Iran's aggressive posture, pulling the region back from the brink of wider war.

By August 7, Jessica showed Anthony a rough draft in Boston; he shared it publicly August 12. Rocket fire and escalations subsided, not spiraling as predicted.

The residual effects rippled outward, manifesting today in the Gaza ceasefire and the freeing of hostages—a direct extension of this cosmic truce, as the image's stabilizing energy continued to dampen militant fervor among Hamas and allies, fostering negotiations and releases that seemed impossible mere months ago.

Anthony confirmed it in his September 5, 2025 video:

“The reason that ceasefire occurred was because... those who have been watching my predictions... make an image to Armaaruss so that the conflict... would abate. [Jessica Mars contacted me on June 24th]... hours before the ceasefire... went into effect... I had been requesting that people make an image because it was revealed to me that if people would make this image, the conflict... would begin to subside... Had Jessica not [acted], there would have been no ceasefire. We would be in World War III right now... Now that we have the image of Armaaruss, we can end this prophetic cycle... and enter a new chapter.”

“I’ve been saying this throughout the years... that if you make an image of Armaaruss, much of the conflict, much of the escalation of violence and rocket attacks... would begin to subside. The frequency and the intensity would decrease. And that certainly happened after Jessica contacted me.”

Conclusion

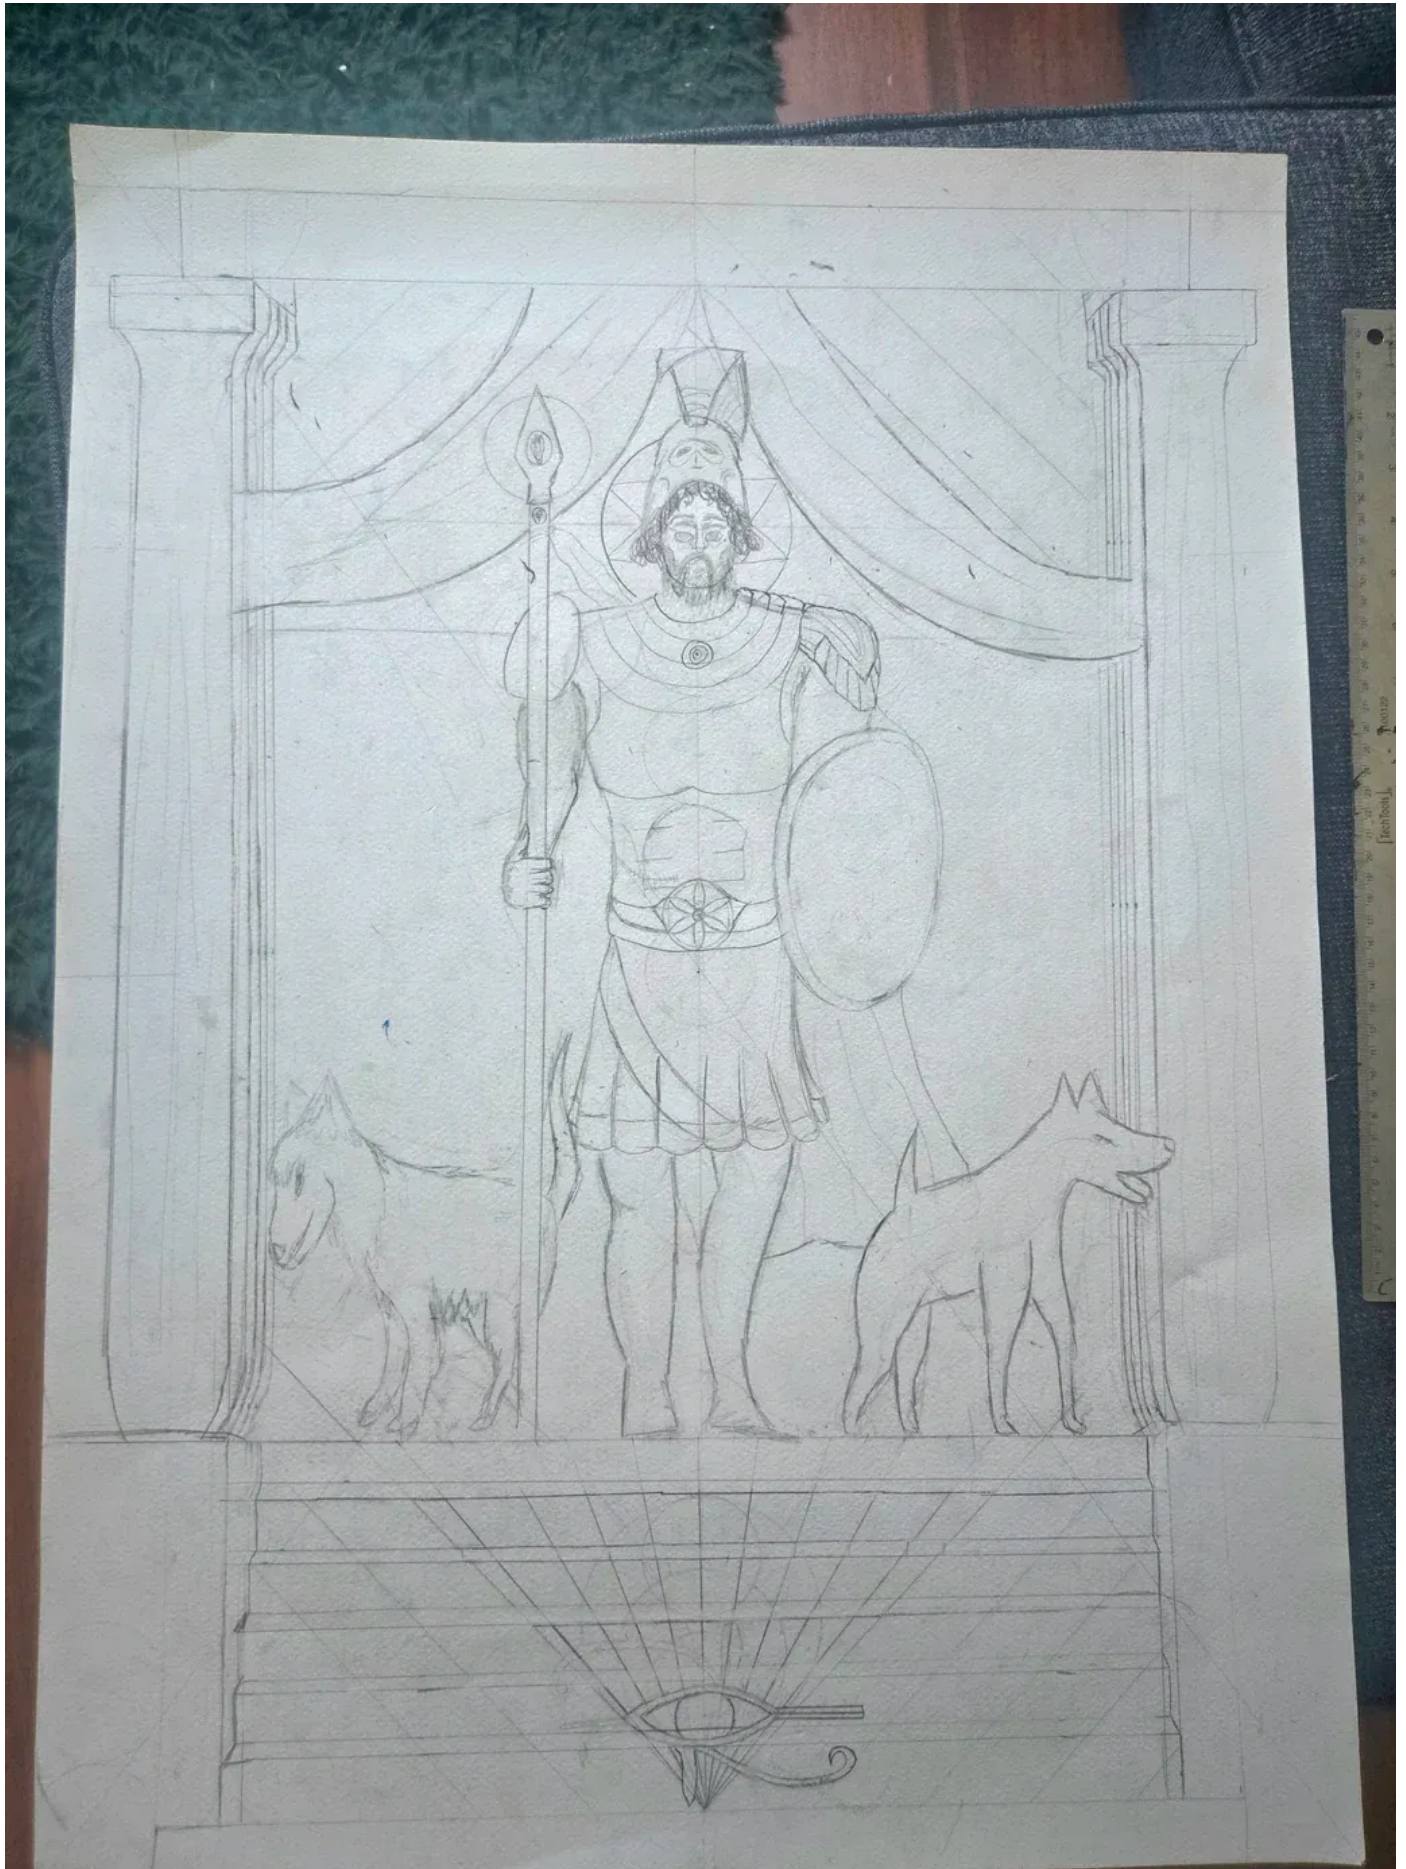

Skeptics might dismiss this as coincidence, but Anthony's track record—six years of pinpoint predictions—defies chance. Mars's 2025 window (June 5–September 4) showed have unleashed unprecedented fury, yet the image's creation flipped the script, starting with the Iran–Israel ceasefire and yielding the Gaza peace as its enduring legacy.

Hostage releases today aren't isolated; they're the harvest of staring down the beast through Armaaruss, turning war's god into peace's guardian.

As Anthony warns, neglecting to “cultivate” or “worship” the image risks renewed conflict in 2026—but for now, we've witnessed prophecy made manifest. The Middle East breathes easier because one image was dared to be created.

What other “impossible” peace might follow if we heed the image of Armaaruss? For now, we can thank Jessica Mars for putting forth the effort to manifest Armaaruss. It is now our turn to maintain these miracles by prostrating ourselves before the image.
